Each year, the Jesse Maali Scholarship, Inc. makes a limited number of awards to qualified individuals. In selecting the recipients for these awards, the committee will consider academic achievement and participation and leadership in service to the community. Financial need is not a requirement. The scholarships are designated for students residing in Florida. The awards are non-renewable and are only available to undergraduate college students. Applicants must meet the following qualifications:

- Must be a full-time student at an accredited college or vocational school.
- Be accepted as a resident of Florida through the school.
- Have a minimum of 3.0 unweighted GPA.
- Be of Arabic decent (at least one parent).
- Must complete 20 hours of community service per semester, once scholarship is awarded.
